

DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE
AIR FORCE ROTC DETACHMENT 165

27 April 2020

MEMORANDUM FOR NEW AFROTC DETACHMENT 165 CADETS

FROM: AFROTC DET 165/CC

SUBJECT: Fall 2020 AFROTC New Student Enrollment (NSE) Application

1. Congratulations on your decision to join the AFROTC program at Detachment 165 at Georgia Tech! We look forward to helping you achieve your goal of becoming a commissioned officer in the world's greatest Air Force. This application and the information packet are critical to your enrollment in AFROTC. You must follow all directions as indicated and complete the entire new student application to properly enroll in AFROTC.

2. All new students must complete the following and submit the NSE Application to the Detachment via email to recruiting@afrotc.gatech.edu no later than Friday, 31 July 2020 in order to participate in the Fall 2020 semester.

a. WINGS Application: via <https://wings.holmcenter.com>

b. NSE Application

3. Please also see the Enrollment Information Packet which contains the following:

a. AFROTC Schedule Fall 2020

b. Ga Tech Buzzcard and Parking Directions

4. Please note, all cadets will be scheduled for a military entrance medical examination during their first semester in AFROTC through the Department of Defense Medical Examination Review Board (DoDMERB). You must be qualified by DoDMERB in order to continue with AFROTC. DoDMERB is the ONLY authority for all medical qualification issues. If you have any medical concerns you think may preclude you from military service, please refer to the DoDMERB website: <https://dodmerb.tricare.osd.mil/Default.aspx>.

5. Again, congratulations on your decision to pursue a career in the United States Air Force! Feel free to contact the Recruiting Officer at recruiting@afrotc.gatech.edu if you have any questions. On behalf of the Det 165 Cadre, welcome -- we look forward to meeting you this fall!
